

*“Courageous
and inspiring”*

*“Real voices,
real people”*

intangible

unable to be touched or grasped; not having physical presence; difficult to define or understand

Seven carers, supporting a family member living with mental illness, from the Far West of New South Wales share with you their journey – opening up their homes, their lives, their heartaches and joys – to give a snapshot of what it is like to “walk in their shoes”
