

YOUR INVITATION TO A CONVERSATION ON AGEING WITH MINISTER MARK BUTLER
SHARON BIRD MP, MEMBER FOR CUNNINGHAM
STEPHEN JONES MP, MEMBER FOR THROSBY

“This Government is committed to ensuring that every older Australian is valued and can access quality support and care that meets their needs, when and where they need it. I want to hear your views about what that means for you. I hope you are available to join me for this important conversation.” Minister Mark Butler

LOCATION:
WOLLONGONG

DATE:
TUESDAY 24 JANUARY 2012

TIME:
2:00pm-4:00pm

VENUE:
Illawarra
Performing Arts Centre
32 Burelli Street
Wollongong NSW 2500

RSVP:
5.00PM
Friday 20 January 2012
P: 1800 182 324
conversationwol@cota.org.au

Older Australians, their families and carers are invited to participate in a conversation on ageing with Federal Minister for Mental Health & Ageing and the Minister for Social Inclusion Mark Butler, Sharon Bird MP, Member for Cunningham and Stephen Jones MP, Member for Throsby on 24 January 2012 in Wollongong.

On 8 August 2011, the Federal Government released the final report from the Productivity Commission’s inquiry into aged care “Caring for Older Australians”. The report canvasses issues about current aged care services and proposed new ways of providing support to older people in our community.

Your RSVP is essential.

Refreshments served on arrival.

The final report and further information about the Productivity Commission inquiry maybe found at www.pc.gov.au