

Community Consultation @ Bathurst

On Monday 6 February 2012, The Physical Disability Council of NSW Inc (PDCN) is holding a Community Consultation. The Community Consultation is open to individuals, organisations and community groups who have an interest/concern in issues in issues for people with a physical disability.

This consultation is a focused way for us to receive information from communities like yours in rural, regional and metropolitan areas of NSW.

Your input will help us to ensure our policy statements, submissions, organisational priorities, and input to government and other stakeholders best reflect the issues that are important to people with physical disability across the State.

During the consultation we will facilitate a discussion around these key areas:

- What is your community doing well?
- What could be working better?
- What are your priorities?

There will also an opportunity to hear from PDCN about our strategies and directions.

The Physical Disability Council of NSW looks forward to meeting you on the 6th.
